

For love's sake

Let me see you in the essence of a rose
Enriching thy soul to unfold
Hearts, opening beauty to behold
Let me see your silence riveting gigantic waves of healing
To grace all humanity of equal dealing
Let me see your refreshed eyes in babe's visions
Replenishing promising joyous envisions
Let me see you in an eagle's flight
Brave soaring courage above it's own plight
Sharp vision, transparent clarity of sight
Guides us all by the shinny bright light
Let me see you in both the warmth to comfort, and fire to clean
Many habits we to wean, so higher lights are clear to beam
Let me see while you synchronize life's dance
Giving human choirs sweat melody sounds clear chance
Healing the world with a simple love glance
Hearts cohesively pulsating universal balance
Look deep within that blossoming rose
Silent, mystical music is composed
Opening wide and beautiful with grace
Behold the heart beyond each face
Golden nectar you will taste
Benefiting the whole and none to waste
So, wake the hearts For Love's Sake
Dear Dove
Be the Love

By Nancy V. Sims
February 15, 2014 / May 12, 2014